GATED VILLA COMMUNITY, DUBAI

Al Barari Reserve

Private-pool villas in a gated reserve

STARTING FROM

AED 4,500,000

approx. USD 1.23M / EUR 1.05M

Space, privacy, and a pool of your own.

Detached villas set on generous plots inside a gated, low-density reserve, each with a private pool, a double-height entrance hall and a ground-floor guest suite. Living space opens fully onto a shaded terrace, and the upper floor is given over entirely to bedrooms, each en-suite.

Villa stock inside established gated communities is the most supply-constrained segment in Dubai, and the segment where end-user demand has held firmest through every recent cycle.
